

Forging Paths Homeschool Co-op Modesty Policy

To be signed annually prior to the first term.

Please keep page 1 for your reference. “Consider others interests above your own.” The heart of modesty is humility. Humility sets aside one’s freedoms for the sake of another’s weakness. Therefore, if your conscience is free to engage in any of the below activities, please limit your activity to outside of Co-op hours and off the facility.

- No clothing that accidentally or purposely exposes undergarments or portions of undergarments.
- No spaghetti straps or muscle shirts. Wide strap tank tops are allowed as long as they meet other requirements.
- No clothing that accidentally or purposely exposes cleavage or any part of the midriff, small of the back or lower.
- No clothing or any accessories with foul language, coarse words, or wording that is intended to be offensive.
- No clothing or any accessories with pictures/graphics denoting violence.
- No clothing or any accessories with wording, pictures/graphics that denote heresy against our Lord.
- Shorts/skirts/dresses should end at fingertip length or mid-thigh while standing.
- Any appearance that is considered extreme or offensive (i.e. clothing, piercings, hair coloring) is not acceptable.
- No foul language or coarse talk.
- No electronics or music with content that has foul language, coarse talk, or violence.
- No exclusiveness with peers.
- No public displays of affection between members of opposite sex, (except, of course, affection expressed amongst family members.)
- Yes to whatever is good, whatever is pure, whatever is noble.

NOTE: Please pay attention to the activities you will be engaging in during the co-op day. Some clothes that meet the modesty policy while seated in a classroom may be problematic while dancing, playing games in P.E., or practicing self-defense. Consider bringing a change of clothes if needed.

I have read the above policy and will adhere to the guidelines.
